COVINGTON GARDEN CLUB MINUTES

The February 3 meeting of the Covington Garden Club was called to order by the president, Mrs. M. T. Benedict, at 2:30 p.m., in the Colonial Room of the Southern Hotel. There being no corrections, the minutes from the previous meeting and the treasurer's report were approved as read. The president then gave a brief eulogy to Miss Louise B. Krause, charter member, second president, and wise counsellor to the club throughout the years, whose sudden death occurred shortly before the January meeting. Out of respect to Miss Krause, whose passing was felt as a keen personal loss to many of the club members, the January meeting was cancelled. Mrs. Walter Valois was also called upon to pay tribute to Miss Krause and her work with the Lydia E. Frotscher Book Reviews, following which Mrs. Ray Moskovitz moved that the Board take into consideration having an appropriate memorial written into the minutes.

The attention of the club was directed by the president to the splendid work of two of its members, Mrs. Herbert E. Cannon, chairman, and Mrs. Edgar Boren, in staging one of the outstanding camellia shows of the year, at which many ribbons were won by garden club members. Mrs. Cannon announced that the show, which is sponsored by the Episcopal Church Auxilliary, will be held in 1956 on January 7 and 8. After mentioning the numbers of club winners of ribbons in the Ozone Camellia Show in Slidell, and the show in Hammond, Mrs. Benedict urged the club to enter and attend the show in Bogalusa on February 9, from 3 to 8 p.m.

Mrs. Valois reminded the group that the next book review would be held in the parish house on February 16, at which time Alonzo Lansford, director of the Delgado Museum of Fine Arts in New Orleans, would speak on trends in art, including the most modern. His lecture would be illustrated with slides.

Mrs. Oliver Hebert announced Garden of the Month winners for January and February, who were Mrs. Sidney Frederick, on Louisiana, and Mrs. Raoul Ledet, on Madison, respectively. Mrs. Benedict told the group that the Covington Garden Club had been invited to send a delegation of its members to attend the Christmas party of the Bayou Liberty Garden Club, and Mrs. Price Magee, Mrs. A. R. Blossman, Mrs. Lionel Pichon, and Miss Ottilie Lambert represented the club. Attention was again called to the new ruling that following four unexplained absenses from meetings, a member will be dropped automatically.

A new member, Miss Adeline McHugh, was introduced to the club, and three guests: Mrs. Strathman, Mrs. W. P. Dyess, and Mrs. H. W. Kostmayer.

Mrs. Bentz reported for the Christmas Decorations committee, of which Mrs. Morgan was chairman, that a tree, donated by Farley, was decorated and placed in the lobby of the new St. Tammany hospital and the styrofoam decorations made by the executive board members were placed throughout the rooms of the hospital; and also that the usual decorations and Santa Claus presided at the Court House balcony for several days preceding Christmas. She asked that a letter of thanks be sent to Mr. Richardson, who acted as Santa Claus, and recommended that in the future two committees be appointed to take care of Christmas decorations, one for the hospital and one for the court house.

Mrs. Benedict told the club that questionnairs had been prepared and would be passed around among the members, who were asked to fill them out and return them. The object of these questionnaires is to determine the garden interests and activities of members and prospective members, and will serve as a permanent file and source of information when members are sought to carry on various activities within the club.

There was much discussion of the proposed beautification of the animal shelter, with many suggestions as to the varieties of shrubs to be used. There were donations of 6 cherry laurels, 2 fortunas, and bamboo.

It was announced that the next meeting of the club would be held at 12:30 on March 3, at Sherry's Ranch House. Mrs. Joyce Landon is chairman of the affair, and Mrs. V. J. Peytral will take reservations through the Monday preceding the luncheon. The cost of the luncheon will be $1.75, and a choice of trout armandine and chicken will be given. Members desiring transportation were asked to contact one of the hostesses.

Mrs. Benedict said that she had tickets for the concert of the N.O. Civic Symphony on February 18, if anyone desired to purchase them. There being no further business or reports from committees, Mrs. Price Magee gave her monthly garden hints, and Mrs. Heyer gave a brief talk on developments in iris culture and pollenization, calling attention to some of the newer varieties and particularly one derived in Baton Rouge from a parent species, Leona, propagated by the Heyers.

A letter was read by Mrs. Benedict from the Covington Girl Scouts Council to the effect that a financial contribution from the club would be appreciated. After some discussion it was decided that donations of this type are not within the province or authorized as a garden club activity, so a glass was passed around into which members dropped some $13 dollars worth in coins, which will be sent to the scouts.

A lively plant auction followed the business session, with Mrs. Helen Guichard auctioning off the plants brought by the members, and Mrs. L. R. Lester identifying them and giving brief hints on their planting habits and care. Thirty-eight dollars was collected on the auction.

Drawing for the entrance prize went to Mrs. Price Magee, after which the meeting adjourned and the social session began.

The president voiced regret that name tags were not ready for all members at this meeting, and hoped that they would be on hand in November.

COMMITTEE REPORTS

I. Membership, Mrs. M.T.Benedict, Chr.

There were 8 resignations and 33 new members, bringing the total to I25, the new limit as voted upon at a previous meeting. The new members were introduced by Mrs. Benedict and welcomed to the club.

II. Projects, Mrs. Ralph Guichard, Chr.

The chairman and her two co-workers, Mrs. J.Moskovitz and Mrs. Leicester Landon, agreed that there was a crying need to remedy the barren and unattractive aspect of the cemetery on Columbia Road, right next to the Fair Grounds. Rows of pine trees to form a lane and azaleas placed across the front would do much to improve and beautify this spot. Mrs. Guichard reports that some of the ground work of phoning, the securing of promise of trees, etc., had already been done; the committee being ready to go ahead after O.K. by the Club.

After discussion by members, motion that the above project was a needed and good one and should be adopted by the Club was made by Mrs. Bessie Capers; seconded by Mrs. O.J.Hebert. Put to a vote, it was unanimously carried.

It was agreed that Mrs. Guichard should proceed as her committee sees fit; progress report to be made in November.

NOVEMBER, 1955

Two new members were welcomed into the club. They were Mrs. Harold Meade and Mrs. Pope Schoenberger.

II. Projects, Mrs. Ralph Guichard, chr.

Mrs. Guichard reported that she and her committee had met with the Cemetery Association group and their plan for the beautification of the new Columbia St. cemetery was met with enthusiasm. They and the Association members went to the site and discussed plans. It was agreed that the Association would put in filling and prepare the soil for early planting, possibly in a month.

The club is to assume supervision of planting, pruning and spraying; the cemetery officials to supply materials and labor. With her fingers crossed, Mrs. Guichard said she hoped to get the pine trees free; also the planting!

III. Garden of the Month, Mrs.O.J.Hebert, chr.

In the absence of the chairman, Mrs.B.B.Warren made report. The plaque was awarded to Mrs.John Koepp, Jr. for October; November not chosen at this date.

Mrs. Warren also made report on the committee's decision regarding the suggestion that letters be sent to small garden owners, commending them on their efforts. After careful study of the issue pro and con, it was decided it would not be feasible to follow such a plan.

NOTE:-- Our president thought this an opportune time to thank Dr.and Mrs.L.Landon for making our new "Garden of the Month" and "Projects" plaques. They are very lovely.

IV. Publicity, Miss Ottilie Lambert, chr.

The club took this opportunity to thank Miss lambert for giving such pertitent facts to the local paper that led to the very good editorial regarding our plans for beautification of Covington and its approaches.

She reports that the editor and his paper are 100% behind any effort we make towards "cleaning-up". Some members objected to the term "cleaning-up" as applied to a Garden Club. However, it was agreed that before any beautifying can take place, there must be a general "house-cleaning". Then, after a project

Nov. 1955

NEW BUSINESS

The draft of the letter to the Police Jury asking for co-operation in our effort to have Covington and its approaches cleaned-up and beautified was read.

After general discussion, it was agreed that the letter should be rewritten, sending that part relative to the environs of Covington to the Police Jury; that part pertaining to the city proper to the Mayor and his Councilmen; also a copy of each to the paper.

It was also suggested that each group be sent a copy of the other group's letter to inform them of our"all-out" campaign.

Motion was made by Mrs.Ralph Guichard; seconded by Mrs.J. Moskovitz to rewrite and send such letters.

The Club was highly amused by the reading of an original poem for October called "Weeds", by our Club poetess Mrs.L.J.Nunez. It struck a delightfully funny note as all of us have had sessions with weeds in our gardens.

The November poem,"Autumn", was in a more serious vein but very lovely.

Miss Bernadine Rice, profram chr., introduced our guest speaker of the month. She was Mrs.J.H.Badenhoof, Horticulturist of the New Orleans Garden Club and she spoke on "Chrysanthemum Culture". We were all delighted with the interesting and interesting facts she gave us.

Mrs. Morgan reminded the Club that all members should wear a corsage at the Xmas meetung made by themselves, and each one should bring a Xmas gift, not to exceed 50 cents, to be given to another member at the party.
